

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. We used to receive 3-4 calls every evening (more on the weekends) and now only receive 2-3 all week. I'm still afraid to answer my telephone because it might be a telemarketer! I wish we could stop all of them from calling! Thank you!